

February 2021 | Volume 2: Issue 3

HANDY NORWEGIAN PHRASES FOR FEBRUARY 14

1. Friendly words for Fido, grandkids, or an occasionally annoying roommate: "Du er søt." You're cute.
2. Searching for a more loving tone? Try "Du betyr så mye for meg." You mean so much to me.
3. Want to go all in? Whisper, "Jeg elsker deg!" But be warned! When Norskefolk say/ love you they most often are expressing a truly romantic, committed love!

Renew Your Membership

The challenges of this past year have provided opportunities to engage the public with Ephraim's history in new ways. We couldn't do the work we do without you, and we invite you to partner with us again in supporting the education and preservation missions of the Ephraim Historical Foundation with your 2021 EHF membership.

Thank you again for your support of the Ephraim Historical Foundation's efforts to faithfully preserve, sustain, and share the history, culture, and beauty of Ephraim!

WANTED: Flag Volunteers

Are you interested in helping the EHF monitor and follow through on executive orders to raise/lower flags at the Schoolhouse and EHF office? Sign up for 2 weeks, a month, or all season (May - Oct). Flag duty might be a fun civics/service activity to experience with grandchildren, your favorite pooch, or a BFF. We'll share info on proper flag etiquette, too. Volunteers are also needed to repaint the Schoolhouse flag pole. Contact EHF Educator Kathleen Harris if interested or phone 920-854-9688. Thanks!

Thanks for Sharing Your Opinion!

In our last issue, we asked you to tell us your favorite Beatles songs. Thank you for participating! Here are poll results.

No new SURVEY this issue. Check back next month.
